Profile

My passion for programming began in high school. Since then, my whole life has been about programming and personal projects.

Recently, I completely have changed my stack, and now I focused on gaining experience as a frontend react developer. I am excited to work alongside other amazing programmers and learn so much more!

Experience

Web Developer · <https://smartcitykey.com/>

May 2021 - Present

I started working on a new project with the aim to study the modern web development stack, in order to become a professional web developer and at the same time, help with the development of my city.

- Managed front-end and back-end development.
- Created a Mobile Responsive User Experience with Bootstrap, then with CSS FlexBox.
- Designed and developed web application using Vanilla JavaScript, then rewrote it in ReactJS.
- Designed two NPM packages in React.
- Built API following RESTful standards to allow users to submit information by storing data in PostgreSQL using Django.
- Build databases and table structures.

Nov 2013 – May 2021

I was working on my own project. Database application development environment for Windows.

I also worked as a freelancer, using my own product to develop database applications.

- Developed object-oriented code.

- Developed the full life cycle of the product, from development and documentation to marketing.
- Published an online book for database training using the product.
- Created a stable community around the product.
- Customized database application development for small to medium sized businesses.
